

Achievements holds holiday family fair

HERALD PHOTOS BY TAMI GARCIA, tgarcia@sun-herald.com

Above: Tony Skulitz of A Temporary Tattoo 4 U, applies an airbrushed dolphin tattoo to the leg of Crystal Cederman, 8, a third-grade student at Cranberry Elementary School during a holiday family fair at Achievements Learning Center in North Port recently.

Right: Abigail McDonald, 3, and a student in the PK-3 class at Achievements Learning Center in North Port, eats a holiday cookie during their family fair.

Achievements Learning Center sponsored the holiday family fair where a bounce house, live music, face painting, food, games, pictures with Santa and local vendors had several items for sale. Below:

Santa Claus holds 2-week-old Keaton Clark whose mother, Shannon, is the director at Achievements Learning Center during a holiday family fair. Children could have their picture taken with Santa, sponsored by Achievements Learning Center, Roi Media, The Truck Junction, Janoff & Khatri Pediatric Dentistry, Copier Sales & Service, Dr. Thomas Cherpak and Tidewell Hospice. Demonstrations were held by A Better Place Dance and Fitness Studio and North Port Tae Kwon Do.

Above: Wendy Rydzenski holds the hand of her 2-year-old son, Drake Benejam, as he rides Jazz owned by Dawn and Greg Schmertmann of TKM Stables during a holiday family fair sponsored by Achievements Learning Center on Dec. 14. Below: Victoria McDonald, 5, receives a package of magical reindeer food from Cathy Dieter, a teacher at Achievements Learning Center.

